

Into the Mystic Retreat

with Messengers of Peace

Suzanne Sullivan and Kirsten Warwick

August 23rd - 25th

Join us for a weekend retreat in the mystical Irish countryside at the Butlerstown Castle just outside of the historic town of Wexford in southern Ireland. This retreat will be an opportunity to sink deeply into the profound teachings of A Course in Miracles. The Course teaches that “to be in the Kingdom of Heaven is to focus your full attention on it”. We invite all that feel a call to join us in focusing on the Kingdom within. There is no better way to spend a weekend than with mighty companions and a joined intention to open our hearts to this experience.

Suzanne and Kirsten have devoted their lives to extending the joyful news that the experience of an awakened mind occurs naturally once the decision is made to serve One Purpose!
